

Contents

Preface	VII
Acknowledgment	IX
Contents	XI
Introduction	1
Historical Background	1
Historical Evolution of the Palestinian Legal System	2
I. The Ottoman Rule over Palestine: 1516-1917	2
II. The British Mandate over Palestine: 1918-1948	3
III. The Jordanian Rule over the West Bank: 1948-1967	3
IV. The Egyptian Administration in the Gaza Strip: 1948-1967	3
V. The Israeli Occupation in the West Bank and Gaza Strip: 1967 – Present Law Enforcement upon Israeli Civilians in the Occupied Territories	4
Law Enforcement upon Israeli Civilians in the occupied Territories	6
VI. The Palestinian National Authority: 1994 - Present	7
The Jurisdiction of the Palestinian Criminal Justice System According to the Declaration of Principles	9
The Political and Legal System in the PA Territories	10
I. The Legislative Authority	12
II. The Executive Authority	13
III. The Judicial Authority	14
Rule of Law in Palestine	15
Shari'a as A Source of Law in Palestine and it's Implication on Human Rights	16
The Main Characteristics of the Palestinian Criminal Justice System	16
The Challengers of the Palestinian Criminal Justice System	19
Approach	26
Objectives	27
Specific Objectives	28
Scope	29
Methodology	31
Summary Plan	32

Part One: Overview of the Crime and the Criminal Justice System	35
The Crime, Crime Factors, Crime Classification and Crime Rates	35
The Crime	35
Crime Factors	36
Classification of Crime	37
Crime Rates	38
The Criminal Justice System	41
The Pillars of the System	43
The Funnel Shape of the Criminal Justice System	44
Structure, Goals and Functions of the Criminal Justice Organisations	45
Guidelines and Principles of the Criminal Procedure	49
Effectiveness versus Efficiency	50
Crime Control versus Due Process	51
Model of Administration	51
Historical Approaches to Management	53
Scientific Management	53
Human Relations Management	53
Systems Management	53
Characterization of the Criminal Justice System Regarding Staffing Ratios	54
 Part Two: The Police	 55
Chapter One: Administration of Police	55
Composition of the Police	55
Policies, Procedures, Rules and Regulations in Policing	56
The Traditional Bureaucratic Model of Police Administration	57
Attempts to Reform the Traditional Model	58
Innovation in Policing Domain	59
Community Oriented Policing and Problem Solving	59
I. Scanning	60
II. Analysis	60
III. Response	61
IV. Assessment	61
Implementing COPPS	61
I. Leadership and Management	61
II. Organizational Culture	62
III. Field Operations	62
IV. External Relations	62

Chapter Two: The Palestinian Police Model	63
The Creation of the First Palestinian Police Force	63
The Characterization of the Palestinian Police in Comparison with the German Police	64
Security Units Operating Police Functions in Palestine	65
Organization of the Palestinian Police Force	67
Training and Qualifications	69
Technology	69
Functions of the Palestinian Police Force	69
The Role of Police in Transition (the Palestine Case)	72
The Challenges of the Palestinian Police Force	74
The Reform Needed in the Police Domain	76
Part Three: The Public Prosecution Office	77
Chapter One:
The Independence of the Public Prosecution Office and its Powers	77
Definition	77
State-Monopoly or Shared Prosecutorial Powers?	78
Status of the Public Prosecution Office: Subordinate or Independent?	79
I. The public prosecution Office is institutionally and functionally subordinated to the executive authority.	79
II. The public prosecution Office is institutionally subordinated to the executive authority, but functionally subordinated to the judicial authority.	79
III. The public prosecution Office is institutionally and functionally subordinated to the judicial authority	82
The Internal Independence of the Public Prosecution Office	82
I. The Hierarchical Structure	82
II. The Decentralized Structure	83
The Powers of the Public Prosecution Office	84
I. The Investigation Power	84
II. The Discretionary Power	86
III. The Adjudication Power	88
Chapter Two:
The Palestinian Public Prosecution Office: The Niyaba Model	89
Definition of the Niyaba	89
Evolution of the Palestinian Niyaba	90

Status of Niyaba in Palestine and Arab World	92
Appointment of Public Prosecutors	92
Functions of the Public Prosecution Office	93
I. Investigating the Crimes	93
Exceptions to the Exclusive Competence	94
II. Prosecution	95
Challenges and Recommendations	98
Part Four: The Judicial System	101
Chapter One: The Palestinian Courts and the Judicial Process	101
The Evolution of the Palestinian Judicial System	101
The Structure and Function of the Regular Courts in Palestine	102
The Magistrate Courts	106
Judicial Process within Magistrate Courts in Criminal Matters	108
The First Instance Courts	108
Judicial Process within the First Instance Courts in Criminal Matters	109
The Courts of Appeal	111
Judicial Process within Appellate Courts in Criminal Matters	112
The High Court	113
The Court of Cassation	114
Judicial Process within the Court of Cassation in Criminal Matters	115
The High Court of Justice	115
The Specialized Courts	116
I. The Juvenile Courts	116
II. The High State Security Court	117
III. The Military Courts	119
The Country Military Courts	119
The Permanent Military Courts	119
The Special Military Courts	119
Chapter Two:
Independence, Impartiality and Accountability of the Judiciary	120
Definition	120
The Independence and Partiality of Judicial System in Germany	121
The Responsibility of the Palestinian Authority to Achieve Judicial Independence under International Measures	122
The Judicial Independence in Palestine	123
Independence versus Accountability	125
How to Strengthen the Judicial Accountability	127

Assignment of Cases	127
Appointment of judges	128
Appointment of judges in Palestine	130
Security of Tenure	132
Factors which Affect Security of Tenure	133
Training/ Developing Judicial Capacity and Attitudes	133
Chapter Three: The Administration of Criminal Courts	135
Definition	135
Two Levels of Courts' Administration	136
I. The Local Level	136
II. The National Level	137
The Evolution and Development of the Court Administrator Position in USA	140
Court Administration Reform	143
Financial Administration	144
The Administration of Justice in Palestine:
The Enhanced Role of the High Judicial Council	145
The Creation of the High Judicial Council	146
The Permanent High Judiciary Council	147
Belgium	148
France	148
Italy	149
The Role, Tasks and Duties of the High Judicial Council	150
The Institutionalization of the High Judicial Council.	152
I. The Secretary of the High Judicial Council	152
II. The Technical Office	152
III. The Training Department	153
IV. The Judicial Inspection Department	153
The Marginalized Role of the Palestinian Ministry of Justice in the Administration of Justice	155
Chapter Four: The Dilemma of Backlog	158
Definition	158
The Nature of Backlog	159
Case Delay is against Human Rights	159
Reasons of Case Delay	161
How to Cure Judicial Systems from Case Delay?	161
The Importance of Case Management System	163
Case Delay in Germany	164
Case Delay in Palestine	165
Assessing the Size of Backlog in Palestine	165

Backlog Control in Palestine	167
I. Mechanism to Deal with Old Cases	167
II. Mechanism to Speed the Litigation Process	168
Part Five: Sanctions and Corrections	169
Chapter One: Sanctions	169
The Penal Legislative Policy	169
Sanctions in Islam	170
The Traditional Criminal Sanctions	176
I. The Capital Punishment	176
II. The Imprisonment	179
The Impact of Imprisonment	187
III. The Fine (Monetary Sanction)	188
The Untraditional Criminal Sanctions	188
I. The Day Fine	190
II. The Restitution	191
III. The Probation	191
IV. Suspension of Imprisonment in Palestine	193
V. The House Arrest	193
VI. Electronic Monitoring	193
VII. The Community Service	194
VIII. Parole	194
IX. Other Alternative Measures	194
Chapter Two: The Corrections	195
Corrections as Organizations	195
Corrections' Privatization	195
Closed or open Organizations?	196
Types of Corrections	196
Inmate Classification	197
The Philosophy of Rehabilitation	198
Administration and Management of Corrections	199
The Situation of the Palestinian Corrections in Regards to the National Laws and International Measures	199
I. Area Available to the Detainees	203
II. Files	204
III. Classification of Detainees	204
IV. The Medical Services	205
V. Communication with the Outside	206
VI. Education and Entertainment	206

VII. Work at Prisons	207
VIII. Inspection of the Prisons by Judicial Institutions	207
IX. Security	208
X. Political Rights	208
Part Six: Modern Methods of Out-of-Court Settlement	209
I. Non Prosecution (Diversion)	210
1. Non Prosecution of Petty Offences	210
2. Provisional Dispensing with Court Action, Provisional Termination of Proceedings	211
3. Diversion in Juvenile Justice	212
Concerns/Critiques	212
II. The Agreement „Absprache“	215
III. The Suspension of Prosecution	217
IV. Decriminalization	217
V. Simplified Procedures: Penal Orders	218
VI. The Accelerated Criminal Procedure	219
VII. The Victim Offender Mediation	220
VIII. Plea Bargaining	222
Out-of-Court Settlement in Palestine	224
I. Diversion	225
II. Summary Procedures	226
Part Seven :
Informal Justice in Palestine “Sulh”: The Sulh as a Customary Mechanism of Restorative Justice in Post Oslo Palestine	227
Chapter One: Introduction to the Sulh	227
Definition	227
Case Study	228
Chapter Two: The Nature of Sulh	230
Features of Sulh	230
Why does Sulh Prevail within the Middle East Societies?	233
Why does Sulh Prevail Heavily in the Palestinian Society?	234
The Importance of Sulh in Post Oslo Palestine	235
Is Sulh an Islamic Mechanism of Dispute Resolution?	237

The Reparation of Damages (Diyah and Irzh)	239
The Legal Basis of Sulh in the Palestinian Legal System	240
Comparing Sulh with Counterpart Restorative Justice Programs	242
Comparing Sulh with Victim Offender Mediation	243
Comparing Sulh with Community/Family Group Conferencing	244
Comparing Sulh with the Circle Sentencing	245
Chapter Three: The Impact of Social and Personal Factors on Sulh	246
The Factors Which Affect Sulh	246
I. Societal Status	246
II. Gender	250
III. The Personality of the Arbitrator (Sheikh)	251
The Financial Circumstances	251
The Educational Level	252
The Political Affiliation	252
The Profession	253
The Size of the Extended Family/Tribe	253
The Coexistence of Sulh and the Formal Justice System	253
The Factors which Influence their Relationships	254
The Interaction between Sulh and Formal Justice System in Palestine	256
The Relationship with the Executive:
Is Sulh an Independent Institution of Dispute Resolution?	259
The Relationship with the President Office	260
The Relationship with the Governorates	260
The Relationship with the Security Units	262
Chapter Four: Evaluation of Sulh	262
The Sulh System and the Rule of Law in Palestine	262
Does Sulh achieve Justice?	264
Does Sulh achieve Security and Social Order?	269
Does Sulh Reduce Crime Rates and Recidivism?	270
Is Legislation Necessary to Introduce Sulh in the Legal System?	270
The Acceptance of Sulh among Palestinians	272
The Evaluation of Sulh According to Samples of Interviewees	273
Those who support the Sulh system and disagree
on any intervention in its affairs	273
Those who recommend incorporating Sulh
under the auspice of the Palestinian Authority	274
Those who are with annulling the Sulh system
and enhancing the formal justice system	274
The Legal Men	274
The Representatives of the Executive Authority	275

The Representatives of the Civil Society	275
The Political Parties	276
The Parliament Members	276
The Arbitrators (Sheikhs)	277
Part Eight: Empirical Research	279
The Objectives of the Empirical Study	280
Hypothesis	281
Methodology	282
Difficulties and Ostacles	283
Is Interview with the Head of the High Court, the President of the High Judicial Council (HJC)	284
The Interview with the Attorney General	285
The Interview with the Head of the Judges Association	286
The Interview with the Head of the Bar Association	286
The Interview with the Speaker of the Police	287
Analysis of the Judges' and Public Prosecutors' Surveys	288
Criminal Investigation	288
Financing the Criminal Justice System	289
Publication of the Judgements	291
Enforcing the Judicial Decisions	291
Judicial Training	292
Appointment Evaluation, Promotion and Discipline of the Judicial Stakeholders	293
The Independence of the Judiciary	296
Evaluation and Reform of the Legal and Judicial System	297
The Administration of the Judicial System	300
The High Judicial Council	301
Case Management and Backlog	303
Restorative Justice/Out-of-Court Settlement	303
Plea Bargaining	306
Simplifying/Streamlining the Procedure and Dropping the Criminal Case	306
Analysis of the Police's Survey	310
Analysis of the Corrections' Officers' Survey	312

Conclusions and Recommendations	313
Results and Recommendations in the Domain of Police	315
Results and Recommendations in the Domain of Public Prosecution Office	316
Results and Recommendations in the Domain of Judicial System	318
Results and Recommendations in the Domain of Sanctions and Corrections	324
Results and Recommendations in the Domain of Out-of-Court Settlement	325
Results and Recommendations in the Domain of Sulh	327
Bibliography	331
Appendices	349