

MAX PLANCK INSTITUTE FOR FOREIGN AND INTERNATIONAL CRIMINAL LAW

STRENGTHENING THE DEFENCE IN DEATH PENALTY CASES IN THE PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC OF CHINA

Empirical Research into the Role of Defence Councils in Criminal Cases Eligible for the Death Penalty

HANS-JÖRG ALBRECHT

AND

RESEARCH UNIT OF THE DEATH PENALTY CASES
SURVEY INSTITUTE OF LAW*

Contents

0. Executive Summary	2
1. Introduction	12
2. The Role of Defence Councils in Criminal Proceedings.....	13
3. The Death Penalty: Developments and Trends	39
4. Criminal Defence, the Lawyers Profession and the Legal Aid System	59
5. Available Empirical Research Related to Defence in Criminal Cases.....	66
6. The Research Projects	73
7. Results from Interviews and Case File Analysis.....	79
8. Discussion of the Findings	136
9. Consequences and Recommendations	145

* Research Unit of the Death Penalty Cases Survey Institute of Law: Professor Chen Zexian (Vice-director of Institute of Law, leader of the team), Professor Qu Xuewu, Professor Tian He, Professor Zhang Shaoyan, Professor Xiong Qihong, and Associate Professor Zong Jianwen. The surveys in Guizhou Province were conducted by Guizhou University for Nationalities, including Professor Wu Dahua, Professor Yang Zhengwan, Associate Professor Zhang Wen, LL.M. Candidate Yang Qiong, Wang Kaiwu, Chen Zijun, Luo Ying, Wang Fei, Wang, Yi, and undergraduate Zhu Wenjun.