

Table of Contents

Preface	V
Table of Contents	VII
List of Abbreviations	IX
List of Contributors	XII

Part 1 – International and European Framework for Fighting Terrorism

Davor Derenčinović Europe at a Crossroads – Countering Terrorism in the Surveillance Society	3
Maja Munivrana Vajda and Sunčana Rokсандić Vidlička Establishing ICC Jurisdiction Over Crimes Committed by ISIL – Did Humanity Fail the Countries of Syria and Iraq?	17
John A.E. Vervaele Foreign (Terrorist) Fighters: Combatants and/or Terrorists or Just Enemies?	35
Maja Serafin UN-Regulations on Asset Freezing as a Countermeasure against the Financing of ISIS	61
Katalin Ligeti and Maxime Lassalle The Organised Crime-Terrorism Nexus: How to Address the Issue of ISIS Benefitting from Lucrative Criminal Activities?	73
Christophe Paulussen Together Against ISIS – Police and Justice Cooperation in Europe	97
Peter B. Campbell and Katie A. Paul Funding Conflict Through Cultural Property: The Destruction and Trafficking of Cultural Heritage by Islamic State	117

Part 2 – National Legal Answers to Terrorism and Recruitment

Russell A. Miller
Surveying German Security Jurisprudence	145
John A.E. Vervaele
Terrorism and Anticipative Criminalization. Ius poenali sine limite?	175
David Lowe
Legislating Non-Violent Extremism in Prevent Strategies: The Example of the UK	192
Steven W. Becker
Transition to Terrorism: Developments in U.S. Terrorism Legislation from Law Enforcement to Intelligence Gathering	211
Mark Drumbl
US Courts, Jurisdiction, and Mutual Trust: RJR Nabisco v. European Community	225
Aleksandar Marsavelski
The Phenomenon of Terrorist Political Parties and Countermeasures for Their Suppression	236
Cenap Çakmak
Phasing the Syrian Crisis: from Peaceful Conflicts to Internationalized Conflict	255
Eliko Ciklauri-Lammich
The Geo-Strategic Importance of the Caucasus and the Radicalization Potential of Different Population Groups in the Region	269

Part 3 – Summary

Marc Engelhart
Aiming for a New Architecture of Security Law	287