

Claiming Citizenship Rights in Europe

Emerging Challenges and Political Agents

Edited by Daniele Archibugi and Ali Emre Benli

Contents

List of figures	vii
List of tables	viii
List of abbreviations	ix
List of contributors	x
Acknowledgments	xi
In search of European citizenship	1
1 Introduction: claiming citizenship rights in Europe	3
ALI EMRE BENLI AND DANIELE ARCHIBUGI
2 European citizenship in times of crisis: what is left?	16
TERESA PULLANO
PART I
The refugee's challenge to European citizenship	27
3 Addressing the refugee crisis by European citizenship	29
MARCO CELLINI
4 Refugees traversing borders: disobedience as an act of European citizenship	47
ALI EMRE BENLI
5 European asylum policy and sexual orientation	62
ILARIA RICCI

PART II

European citizens at the fringe 79

- 6 Prisoner voting rights on a European perspective: the cases of McHugh & others v. The United Kingdom and Thierry Delvigne v. Commune de Lesparre Médoc 81

VIOLA SCORDIA

- 7 Who votes and who can be voted for in the European parliament elections? 100

ILARIA RICCI

- 8 Estonia's non-citizens, citizens of the European Union? 116

GIGI MIHĂIȚĂ

- 9 Sterilisation without informed consent: how to improve European citizens' medical agency 130

OLGA LENCZEWSKA

- 10 Parallel claims for the human right to water: the case of Roma in Slovenia 148

MAREK SZILVASI

PART III

Emerging issues and political subjects 169

- 11 The "right to be forgotten": asserting control over our digital identity or rewriting history? 171

ALICE PEASE

- 12 A right to protection for whistle-blowers 186

DANIELE SANTORO AND MANOHAR KUMAR

- 13 Can art help claiming rights? A case for aesthetic activism in the EU 204

DANIEL TKATCH

Epilogue 223

- 14 Claiming rights to rejuvenate European integration 225

DANIELE ARCHIBUGI AND ALI EMRE BENLI

Index 235