

Contents

General Introductory Lectures

HANS-JÖRG ALBRECHT: The UN Transnational Crime Convention – An Introduction	1
PETER GASTROW: The Origin of the Convention	19
JAN VAN DIJK, MARK SHAW, EDGARDO BUSCAGLIA: The TOC Convention and the Need for Comparative Research: Some Illustrations from the Work of the UN Centre for International Crime Prevention	31
CYRILLE FIJNAUT: The UN Convention and the Global Problem of Organized Crime	55
WILLY BRUGGEMAN: The fight against organised crime: possibilities, problems and opportunities, with a special focus on the EU	67

The Contents of the Convention

MICHAEL KILCHLING: Substantive Aspects of the UN Convention Against Transnational Organized Crime: A Step Towards an 'Organized Crime Code'?	83
VINCENZO MILITELLO: Participation in an Organized Crime Group as International Offence	97
FRANK VERBRUGGEN: On Containing Organised Crime Using "Container Offences"	113
SABINE GLESS: The Prominent Procedural Issues: Obtaining Evidence Abroad – a European Approach	133
MARK MACKAREL: Procedural Aspects of the Convention	145

JAMES B. JACOBS: Preventing Organized Crime	155
The Implementation of the Convention
OTTO LAGODNY: Implementation of the Convention: The Sovereignty Issue	165
MARGARET E. BEARE: Shifting Boundaries - between States, Enforcement Agencies , and Priorities	171
DIDIER BIGO: Military Police and European Peace Keeping Missions	193
LETIZIA PAOLI: Implementation: Concepts and Actors	207
KRZYSZTOF KRAJEWSKI: Some Legal and Criminological Aspects of Implementation	235
MICHAEL TONRY: "Transnational" "Organised" "Crime" - Prospects for Success of the UN Convention	253
NICOLA FILCHEV: Organized Crime in Terms of the Transition Process and the Criminal Legislation	269
About the Authors	277